

The Grey School of Wizardry

“Omnia vivunt, omnia inter se conexa.” —Cicero
www.GreySchool.com

Do you want to learn real Wizardry, magick, and arcane lore?

Enroll in the Grey School of Wizardry and join our online campus! We offer over 100 classes with readings and practical exercises, a library, newsletter, school store, and forums for student and teacher interaction. Classes are taught by highly-qualified faculty, with new classes being added continually. This school focuses on magick rather than spirituality, although some classes do explore mythology and comparative religions. 16 Departments include Wizardry, Nature Studies, Magickal Practice, Metapsychics, Healing, Wotcunning, Divination, Alchemy, Performance, Lifeways, Beast Mastery, Mathemagicks, Cosmology, Ceremonial Magick, Lore, and Dark Arts.

What is the Grey School of Wizardry?

The Grey School of Wizardry is an outgrowth of the Grey Council—an assembly of two dozen of the magickal community’s most respected elders and teachers with a common Vision: to spark the imagination, beauty, and power of the minds of seekers everywhere. We accept students of all ages over 11, with programs for both teens and adults. The Grey School is highly interactive, including Elemental Houses and Lodges with forums and the Great Hall in which students can communicate directly with each other. The School provides an extensive program of studies in all areas of Wizardry and Magick, at an Apprentice grade over seven “year-levels.” Graduates will be certified as “Journeyman Wizards.”

How do I enroll as a student in the Grey School of Wizardry?

If you would like to enroll as a student in the Grey School of Wizardry, please fill out the Enrollment Form at the above url. Tuition for the first year is $18 for students under 18, or $30 for students 18 and older. Full details appear on the Grey School Website.

What is the Textbook for the Grey School?

The primary textbook for the Grey School of Wizardry is Grimoire for the Apprentice Wizard, by Oberon Zell-Ravenheart (New Page Books, 2004).

What if I want to join the Grey School faculty?

If you would like to learn about faculty opportunities at the Grey School of Wizardry, contact the Headmaster for a copy of the Faculty Application form: Oberon@mcn.org

Oberon Zell-Ravenheart,
Headmaster
Elizabeth Barrette,
Dean of Studies

The Grey School of Wizardry

“Omnia vivunt, omnia inter se conexa.” —Cicero
www.GreySchool.com

Do you want to learn real Wizardry, magick, and arcane lore?

Enroll in the Grey School of Wizardry and join our online campus! We offer over 100 classes with readings and practical exercises, a library, newsletter, school store, and forums for student and teacher interaction. Classes are taught by highly-qualified faculty, with new classes being added continually. This school focuses on magick rather than spirituality, although some classes do explore mythology and comparative religions. 16 Departments include Wizardry, Nature Studies, Magickal Practice, Metapsychics, Healing, Wotcunning, Divination, Alchemy, Performance, Lifeways, Beast Mastery, Mathemagicks, Cosmology, Ceremonial Magick, Lore, and Dark Arts.

What is the Grey School of Wizardry?

The Grey School of Wizardry is an outgrowth of the Grey Council—an assembly of two dozen of the magickal community’s most respected elders and teachers with a common Vision: to spark the imagination, beauty, and power of the minds of seekers everywhere. We accept students of all ages over 11, with programs for both teens and adults. The Grey School is highly interactive, including Elemental Houses and Lodges with forums and the Great Hall in which students can communicate directly with each other. The School provides an extensive program of studies in all areas of Wizardry and Magick, at an Apprentice grade over seven “year-levels.” Graduates will be certified as “Journeyman Wizards.”

How do I enroll as a student in the Grey School of Wizardry?

If you would like to enroll as a student in the Grey School of Wizardry, please fill out the Enrollment Form at the above url. Tuition for the first year is $18 for students under 18, or $30 for students 18 and older. Full details appear on the Grey School Website.

What is the Textbook for the Grey School?

The primary textbook for the Grey School of Wizardry is Grimoire for the Apprentice Wizard, by Oberon Zell-Ravenheart (New Page Books, 2004).

What if I want to join the Grey School faculty?

If you would like to learn about faculty opportunities at the Grey School of Wizardry, contact the Headmaster for a copy of the Faculty Application form: Oberon@mcn.org

Oberon Zell-Ravenheart,
Headmaster
Elizabeth Barrette,
Dean of Studies

